PRODUCT SAFETY WARNING AND RECALL NOTICE

CERTAIN WALTHER PPS M2 PISTOLS

Walther Arms, Inc. discovered a potential safety issue with certain PPS M2 pistols shipped before September 21, 2018. Walther voluntarily initiated a recall in November 2018 to protect the safety of its customers because under certain conditions it is possible that some of these pistols may fire when dropped. The only PPS M2 pistols affected by this recall are those in the following serial number ranges:

AN3020 - AN9999
AO0000 - AO9999
AP0000 - AP9999
AQ0000 - AQ9999
AR0000 - AR9999
AS0000 - AS9999
AT0000 - AT9999
AU0000 - AU7502

All these pistols were shipped BEFORE September 21, 2018

Walther PPS M1 models are not affected by this recall nor are ANY PPS M2 models shipped after September 21, 2018.

Through this follow-up notice, we again need your help to identify all purchasers of the PPS M2 pistols affected by this recall. We kindly ask that, to the extent you have not done so already, you immediately review your acquisition and disposition ("A&D") records and send us a list of the names and addresses of the customers to whom they were sold, the date(s) of the sale, and the serial number(s) of the pistols(s) sold to each customer so that we may contact them to notify them of this recall. If any of the pistols were sold to another federal firearms licensee, please provide us with a copy of their federal firearms license. In addition, if you have them, please provide the telephone and facsimile numbers and/or email addresses for the customers to whom you sold any PPS M2 pistols affected by this recall.

In addition, we kindly ask that you post this information of the affected pistols in a highly visible location at your Retail locations and on your websites to aid in notification to any consumers that are in possession of one or more of the identified pistols.
